ON YOUR OWN: From 1954 to 1968, MLK's advocacy helped change many societal norms in the U.S. through the passage of new laws and Supreme Court decisions. But despite his successes, some things haven't changed much in the 50 years since he was killed. Using information from the article as well as your own outside research, write about what you believe is the biggest problem facing U.S. society today. How do you believe this problem might be addressed in order to encourage positive change over time?
